The following items are those which Mr. Clifford has indicated to the Director that he would like to discuss on Friday which directly concern the DD/I.

a. "National intelligence estimating process. (Status and results of survey looking to possible improvements in organization, procedures and product.)"

The DCI would like a comment on this from the Chairman of the Board of Estimates.

b. "Current intelligence assessments and spot reporting on crisis situations. (The DCI's comments on the adequacy of present arrangements for providing the President and members of his staff with such assessments and reports.)"

The DCI will use the report being prepared by Mr. Earman on this. If the DD/I has additional comments, please forward at an early date.

c. "Intelligence collection activities of Soviet trawlers operating off U.S. coasts."

The DCI requests that DD/I prepare a memorandum on this subject after checking with the Navy.
